Million to Be Spent at Airport

Plans of Air Guard Disclosed

U. S. To Build New Hangars

Establishing of the 164th Fighter Squadron, Air National Guard, in Mansfield will bring an investment of more than a million dollars in buildings and equipment at the Mansfield municipal airport, city officials learned today.

Plans for setting up the unit here were outlined at a luncheon meeting at the Sky Club, attended by city, Chamber of Commerce and army officials.

The government plans to construct hangars, an operations office, warehouses, a motor repair center and maintenance building and possibly an officers' club.

Building projects alone are expected to cost more than $500,000. Airplanes and equipment will represent the rest of the investment.

It is expected that a recruiting drive will soon be opened to fill the complement of 49 officers and 293 enlisted men.

The local port is also the home base for the 321st Bombardment group, (Reserve) and the 155th Air Warning and Control squadron (Air National Guard.)

REQUIREMENTS LISTED

A breakdown of the table of organization shows the following personnel requirements:

Four flights with 32 officers and 101 enlisted men.

One utility flight with six officers and 29 enlisted men.

One weather station, with three officers and five enlisted men.

One service flight, with eight officers and 168 enlistment.

Thirty-three of the officers and men will be on full time duty at the airport.

Enlistments will be open to anyone between 18 and 45 years of age. Previous military experience is not necessary except in the case of the officer pilots who must be Army or Navy pilots within their age and grade limits.

Officers of the unit can fly anytime they want and must log a total of 110 hours per year. They will receive flying pay in addition to their regular compensation. Enlisted men will receive a full day's pay for each drill period in excess of two hours. They will be required to attend 48 drill periods per year plus two weeks of active duty.

A full complement of combat planes will be stationed with the unit, including 25 P-51 Mustang fighter planes, four A-26 attack bombers, two transport planes and four training planes.

Draft Bill Is Still Tied Up

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Senate Republicans failed today in an effort to compromise the touchy racial issue raised in connection with the draft bill.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) told a reporter he cannot go along. Russell is leader of a band of Southern Democrats who insist that no white man drafted for the armed services should have to serve alongside man of another race if he doesn't want to.

Russell took this stand.

"We are willing to compromise if it will allow the individual, drafted or enlisted hereafter, to have the right to live and serve with members of his own race."

The GOP proposal is this: Let the secretaries of army, navy and air force decide racial status of units in which drafted and enlisted men would serve.

As the bill now stands, it says "there shall be no discrimination against any person on account of race or color" in carrying out the draft law.

Haganah Rams Into Jerusalem

TEL AVIV, State of Israel —(INS)—Haganah commando forces rammed their way into the beleaguered old walled city of Jerusalem today in a thrust aimed at relieving 1,300 Jews besieged by Arabs.

A communique issued by headquarters of Haganah said that the Jewish relief forces broke into the old city in fierce midnight fighting.

The daring thrust was undertaken by the Jewish relief units after the Arab legionnaires previously battered their way into the Jewish quarter of old Jerusalem.

The Arab onslaught precipitated an all-out battle for control of the Holy City.

In another action close to the provisional capital of Israel, Haganah claimed its forces captured the former British military camp of Sarafand. Sarafand is situated between Tel Aviv and Lydda, 10 miles southeast of Tel Aviv.

Forceful U. N. Peace Order Not Expected

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. —(CP)—T. F. Tsiang, China's delegate to the United Nations, raised doubt today that the security council would agree on any forceful steps to halt the war in Palestine.

Tsiang was asked in an interview if he agreed with predictions that the big five powers would not take immediate steps capable of halting the Arab-Jewish fighting.

The Chinese delegate said he "agrees" that the nature of the Palestine issue and the existence of the Big Five veto power virtually assured that there would be no genuinely forceful U.N. intervention.

It was learned that American officials, even though they have Soviet support were extremely doubtful of getting a majority of the security council to back even the mild "first step" proposal for ordering Jews and Arabs to cease fire and hold to their present positions in the Holy Land.

British Will Continue Aid to King Abdullah

LONDON—(CP)—Great Britain intends to continue supplying arms and providing British officers to King Abdullah's Arab legion until ordered to stop by the United Nations, informed sources said today.

These sources said there was no reason for Britain to abandon treaty obligations with any Arab state and it should not be assumed that Trans-Jordan and other members of the Arab league are acting illegally until aggression has been proved.

Whitehall legal experts also expressed strong doubts whether the British war office had the power to recall the 40 British officers in the Arab legion, including the legion commander, Brigadier John B. Glubb, the famous "Glubb Pasha" of Arab fame.

Poll Planned At Oak Ridge

WASHINGTON—(CP)—The National Labor Relations board today completed plans to poll 800 workers at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic laboratories to see if they will accept a contract offer already rejected by their union.

The vote, which must be finished by June 3, will be the first conducted under the national emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

It is the government's last legal chance under that law to head off a strike of atomic laboratory workers that may start any time after June 8.

If the Oak Ridge employes turn down the final contract offer of the Carbide & Carbon Chemicals corporation, they will be legally free to strike.

Kenneth L. Scott, president of the AFL Atomic Workers Union, predicted that "not more than 25 workers will accept the company's offer."

County Lets Contract For TB Hospital

Third Try Brings Bids Below Estimates

General construction contract for Richland county's new tuberculosis sanatorium was awarded at noon today to Louis Zahn, Mansfield contractor, subject to the approval of County Prosecutor Theodore Lutz.

Approval of other bids on plumbing, heating, wiring and elevators for the building was deferred pending a conference of federal and state representatives with Architect Herbert S. Jones this afternoon.

Dr. John S. Hattery, chairman of the TB building commission, said he expected to call a meeting for awarding of the bids sometime this week.

All low bids submitted were below the architect's estimate. Zahn won over the Friebel and Hartman company of Shelby and the Mountaineer Engineering company of Pittsburgh with his low bid of $476,650. The base estimate for the general construction was $488,000.

Friebel and Hartman bid $482,216 and the Mountaineer company $479,628.

An entrance gate and walk to the hospital, included in the former two advertisings, were taken from the specifications this time.

FIRST TIME IN THREE

It was the first time in three invitations to contractors to bid on general construction that offers had been received below the estimates of the architect.

The first of the bid openings, nearly two years ago, brought offers so far above estimates that the county commissioners submitted a request to voters to approve a $400,000 bond issue to supplement the $350,000 issue previously voted. The supplemental issue was approved last November.

Two other Mansfield firms turned in lowest bids on equipment. Malone Plumbing, Inc. bid $111,990 on plumbing, heating and ventilating. The estimate had been $125,529.

Buchman Electric Construction company bid $32,224 for the wiring job. Lowest bid on elevators and dumb waiters was $21,779 submitted by the Warsaw Elevator company of Warsaw, N. Y.

Dr. Hattery said that the Malone company turned in a bid of $7,000 on 48 additional laboratories.

Other bidders on plumbing, heating and ventilating were: Charles Hoffman company of Mansfield, $123,148; T. O. Murphy of Oberlin, $124,920. The Becker-Seidel-Clark, Inc., of Cleveland turned in a lone plumbing bid of $83,988.

OTHER BIDS LISTED

Other bids on wiring were made by A. T. Emmett company of Port Clinton, $32,277; Richland Electric company of Mansfield, $39,000, and the Bellville Electric company of Bellville, $36,639. Estimate on wiring had been set at $35,220.

Also bidding on elevators and dumb waiters were: Otis Elevator company of Cleveland, $23,842; Westinghouse corporation of Cleveland, $23,055; Warner Elevator company of Cincinnati, $24,102; Murphy Elevator company, $25,062, and the Haughton Elevator company of Toledo, $23,187.

Total of lowest bids submitted on plumbing, heating, ventilating, wiring and elevators was $165,993, of which one third of $55,331 will be paid through federal aid. The hospital has been granted a maximum of $104,566 in federal aid for equipment.

Rivals Seek Oregon Vote

PORTLAND, Ore. — (AP) — Oregon's presidential primary today flared to white heat as Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey loosed final salvoes in their battle for Friday's Republican ballots.

Both candidates are on their campaign trails again. Stassen is barnstorming by airplane to coastal towns, while Dewey swung by bus through the thriving Willamette valley.

Each has a busy schedule until election eve.

The Minnesotan's charge that he faces a Dewey-Taft combination in this far west test was quickly labeled a "pipe dream" by Gov. Dewey.

Ice Cream Follows Hot Dogs

300 Boys Satisfy Ravenous Appetites

Blessed by the first non-rainy day in six years, more than 300 county and city schoolboy patrolmen played games and ate their way through prodigious amounts of food at their annual picnic at North Lake park yesterday.

The boys worked up ravenous appetites running potato relay races and playing baseball at the picnic sponsored by the Richland County Automobile club.

Although the eating part of the picnic was not scheduled until 6 p. m., the hungry lads lined up as much as a half an hour before that time.

And when they were through, they had consumed 100 pounds of hot dogs, 300 bags of potato chips, 55 dozen buns, 750 bottles of milk and 750 ice cream bars.

The hot dogs were cooked by Traffic Commissioner Frend C. Boals with the aid of Patrolmen Charles Condor and Robert Pittenger.

'HOW LONG DO WE EAT?'

The boys really relished the mustard-covered wieners, but seemed anxious to get at the ice cream. One lad queried:

"How long do we have to eat these hot dogs before we get to the ice cream?"

The games played before the eats were served were supervised by Stanley W. Kamen, director of the city recreation department.

A St. Peter's parochial school team won the potato relay races. The team was composed of Joe Mergel, Jimmy Altmonte, Bob Rahall, Don Eichinger, Jerry Grega and Dick Marshall. Grega was also crowned individual champ.

Many of the boys took to the lake and rowed while others played baseball or frolicked on the swings.

2 Soldiers Sentenced

YOKOHAMA—(CP)—An Eighth army court martial today sentenced Pfc Claude H. McHargue, 19, of Pine Hill, Ky., and Pvt. William Kessenger, 18, Whitehall, Ill., to 10 years hard labor, dishonorable discharge, and forfeitude of their total pay.

They were found guilty of armed robberies of Japanese.

25,000 Ready For Sale

Scouts to Sell Poppies

Twenty-five thousand poppies—traditional reminders of the soldiers who are still fighting two World Wars from hospital beds—go on sale on Mansfield streets early Saturday morning.

The price will be a dime—or more—with all proceeds from the sale staying in the city for the rehabilitation of veterans and for welfare work conducted by the American Legion.

Yesterday, 10,000 poppies were delivered to Mansfield factories where they will go on sale late Friday, catching employes as they leave work for the week end. Fifteen thousand more of the brilliant red paper flowers will be handled by Johnny Appleseed area Boy Scouts.

Mrs. H. D. Moorhead, chairman of the Legion Auxiliary-sponsored Poppy Day celebration, said that one cent from every poppy goes to the hospital where bed-ridden veterans make the flowers.

In line with the observance, Mayor Roy W. Vaughn urged all citizens to support the auxiliary's project by wearing the memorial flower. In proclaiming Saturday as Poppy Day, the city's chief executive says the day is in the "memory of those who died . . . in the defense of the United States in two wars."

Agreement Ends Plant 'Slow-down'

Dispute Settled At Westinghouse

Twelve hundred Westinghouse refrigeration-line workers returned to full-scale production at 6 a. m. today, following agreement with company officials on average earning rates which ended a two-weeks' slow-down.

Information of the settlement was given the News-Journal by Joseph Hawkins, president of Local 711, United Electrical Workers, CIO. Company officials answered all inquiries with a brief: "no comment".

Verification that the slow-down had reduced production at the East Springfield (Mass.) plant where refrigerator units are made was given the N-J yesterday by Production Manager Thomas.

Asked if the slow down in Mansfield had affected work at the Springfield plant, Thomas answered: "Yes, it has."

500 AFFECTED

James Weaver, general manager of the Springfield plant, said Springfield workers had "already caught up with the Mansfield plant." Weaver declined, however, to answer questions on the number of workers affected at Springfield. Hawkins said he supposed between 500 and 600 unit workers are employed at Springfield.

Reese Mills, assistant manager at the local Westinghouse plant, commented: "The story goes back farther than I have time to tell you."

Even today, the tongue-tied officials refused to comment.

"The company tried to make a rate cut in a way which was not justified under the contract," Hawkins said.

SPOT CHECK OF WORK

"They (the company) made a spot check of work and used it for a rate study which is not allowed in the contract. They caught the men at the peak of their efficiency and then tried to cut back rates 30 to 35 per cent. They were out to steal that much of the men's earnings because the men were working the hardest they could when they made the check."

Hawkins said nearly 1,400 persons at the Westinghouse plant were affected by the slowdown last week "when the company refused to take retarded production and sent them home." He added, however, that no worker missed more than three or four days work.

The agreement, as explained by Hawkins, restores average 170 per cent earning power to the workers.

"We had to fight it because the company would have tried to pull the same thing throughout the plant," the union president concluded.

Mercury Down to 38

Mansfield was reported as the coldest spot in Ohio this morning when the mercury dipped to 38 degrees. No damage to crops was reported.

The weatherman said there may be scattered light frost tonight with the chilly wave remaining until tomorrow. Skies are expected to remain clear through Thursday.

Weatherman C. G. Andrus at Cleveland said the frost possibility was pretty much on the "borderline" since the mercury was not expected to go much below 40 degrees and high clouds may check radiation which promotes frost formation.

"The most danger of frost tonight is 10 miles or so from Lake Erie," Andrus said, "and that would apply only to low-lying sections."

Psychiatrists Study Youth

COLUMBUS—(INS)—State psychiatrists were attempting today to unravel the thought patterns of Bryan junior high school student, Ervin Ingle, who confessed killing an elderly couple to get a car to take his girl to a dance.

Ingle was taken to the Bureau of Juvenile Research in Columbus yesterday. BJR Director Dr. Maurice Neubarger said doctors will examine him for an indefinite period to find out why he fired the fatal shots when Mr. and Mrs. John Gabriel refused him their car.

Jury Noses Find Goats Like Roses

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. — (CP) Louie Sleder's goats were vindicated today by the noses of municipal court jury members.

F. J. Braden had complained the goats Sleder herded near his home had an offensive odor. Sleder suggested that the jury come and smell for themselves, and Judge James Fitzpatrick accepted the motion.

The jury went and sniffed; then held for Sleder and his goats.

Insincerity Of Reds Hit By Marshall

Urges 'Action' By Soviet Union

WASHINGTON —(CP) — Secretary of State George C. Marshall said today that since the Russians opened their "peace offensive" they have shown no signs of sincerely seeking agreements in existing international bodies.

Marshall's statement to a news conference supplemented the one of a week ago when he called for "action" by the "Soviet Union in various international disputes.

What the world needs so urgently, Marshall said today, is constructive and remedial action, particularly on questions which are before international bodies.

Referring directly to Premier Josef Stalin's recent proposal to negotiate a settlement of the cold war on the basis of Henry A. Wallace's program, Marshall said the sincerity of the stated desire of the Soviets would be determined by their attitude in the various bodies where negotiations among all interested nations are now under way.

Progress in the past has been prevented by the Soviets, he said.

Actress' Mother Aids Author as Secretary

Mrs. Natalie Bacall, Hollywood, Calif., mother of Actress Lauren Bacall, will serve temporarily as secretary to Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield, members of the family at Malabar said today.

Mrs. Bacall, who has been a friend of the family for several years, has arrived at the Bromfield home.

She will aid the author until he employs a permanent secretary to fill the post left vacant by the recent death in New York of George Hawkins.

Mrs. Bacall has visited frequently at Malabar and was a guest there when her daughter was married to Humphrey Bogart in a nationally-publicized wedding in May, 1945.

Food Dearth Makes Bigger Moron Crop

BOSTON - (CP) - Lack of food has caused a "temporary" increase in the number of morons among the children of Europe and Asia, according to the president-elect of the American Association of Mental Deficiency.

Dr. Edward J. Humphryes, Ohio's acting commissioner of mental hygiene, told the opening meeting of the association's five-day conference yesterday that food shortages affect mental as well as physical health.

"The results of rationing of food by the Germans in Greece for example, has been widespread malnutrition of children, with resulting increase in children who are physically, emotionally, intellectually and socially enfeebled.

Phone Inquiry Plan Flayed

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A special investigation of a threatened telephone strike was set today over the protests of the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

President Truman's announcement that the inquiry was necessary because the dispute "threatens to result in a work stoppage imperiling national health and safety" brought a quick objection from the A. T. & T.'s long lines department.

Members of the President's fact-finding board - which will report by June 8—were not named immediately.

Threatens Another Walkout

Calls Meeting Of Policy Group

WASHINGTON — (UP) — John L. Lewis today walked out on the soft coal wage conferences.

His action raised the threat of a new bituminous strike before June 30.

Lewis quit the conference when the coal operators voted over his objections to seat Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers association.

The United Mine Workers chief walked out with this announcement:

"I make the observation that there is now no conference.

"The operators have voted themselves and the United Mine Workers out of this conference. There is no one to guarantee the hall rent from this moment on."

Lewis then turned to the union delegates and said:

"The wage policy committee (of the union) will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning."

The union committee presumably will decide whether to charge that the operators now have violated the contract, which runs until June 30, and if it warrants a new work stoppage.

Lewis and the UMW now are under an 80-day no-strike injunction as a result of the recent pension strike. But this injunction would not apply to a strike over new contract negotiations. The government would have to seek a new injunction to prevent such a walkout.

MOODY PLANS ACTION

John C. Gall, attorney for Moody, told reporters that he would immediately file charges with the National Labor Relations board that Lewis had again refused to bargain with the Southern Coal Producers association. He said that NLRB General Counsel Robert N. Denham would be asked to seek an immediate court injunction to require Lewis to bargain, if the general counsel wishes to do so.

Beyond Lewis' statement that the UMW wage policy committee will meet tomorrow, there was no comment from the union on its future plans.

The threat of a walkout before the June 30 expiration of the present contract stems from the terms of that pact. Lewis contends that failure of the southern operators to attend the new negotiation session as "individuals" constitutes a violation of and therefore a "dishonoring" of the present contract.

Lewis based this contention on the fact that the southern operators signed the present contract as individual associations and that the contract requires the signatories to negotiate a new agreement.

Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the northern operators, said he had no idea what the next step will be.

He was asked about the possibility of separate negotiations between the union and northern operators.

"We would if Mr. Lewis would meet with us," O'Neill said, "but there is no intimation of such a meeting and I know of no one who plans such talks."

George H. Love, president of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal company, said today's vote was not to unseat the mine workers—as charged by Lewis—or the operators, but a vote to "prevent the establishment of a dangerous precedent by the mine workers to say who shall represent the operators in these conferences."

"I don't think that is collective bargaining," Love said. "I think that is a violation of the Taft-Hartley act."

Miner Loses Leg In Mishap

MILLERSBURG—Clay Guthrie, 43, Killbuck, R. D., lay in critical condition today in Pomerene Memorial hospital, his left leg torn off at the hip in a strip mining accident.

Guthrie was brought to the hospital at 2:15 a. m. by a fellow worker, Whitey Gray, who said Guthrie's leg became caught in drag line machinery at the Blue Crystal Strip Coal Mine 3½ miles south of Killbuck about 1 a. m. The accident happened as Guthrie was oiling machinery.

Gray drove 13 miles to bring the injured man to the hospital. Guthrie, the father of three children, had been given seven blood transfusions before noon.

Barnes' Purchase of PM Prompts Speculation on Financial Backer

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that Joseph Barnes, who held the title of foreign editor of the New York Herald Tribune, has "bought" an interest in Marshall Field's thing in New York need not portend a political or editorial change in either of these phenomena.

The Herald Tribune professes the Republican faith.

Marshall Field's thing devoured an enormous stack of 10-cent dollars in a career of strident provocation. In rapturous self-expression, Field raked raw and salted old scars of religious and racial tenderness in the City of New York.

Meanwhile, Congress suspected that in the long run the taxpayers and not Marshall Field might bear the cost of this vanity.

Therefore Congress passed an act called the Marshal Field law providing that a rich man could finance a hobby at a tax-loss only so long. Thereafter he must pay for his own mischief and fun. At last, after the turn of the year, Mr. Field tired of pitching hay to this Trojan hide and said he was going to knock it on the head.

So now we hear that Barnes has become an owner and publisher of the thing. However, the profession, at least, knows that the Herald Tribune does not pay salaries, even to editors, and however frugal they, which permit them to save enough to buy into the daily field in New York. And there is no word as to who put up the money.

This prompts a guessing game One who has done Mr. Barnes the honor of studying his career wonders if he might have curried some backing from Frederick Vanderbilt Field, a millionaire not related to Marshall Field.

F. V. Field was Barnes' patron at Harvard. They were close then and in a touching fulfillment of friendship all around, the wife of Mr. Field became the wife of his faithful protege, Joe Barnes.

Paper collar Joe Davies, who married into the yachting set never suspecting that yachting would make his seasick, wrote in his deathless "Mission to Moscow" that Barnes was a radical but that his little woman, formerly F. V. Field's little woman, was much more so.

Of recent years, F. V. Field has been amusing himself playing push-doorbell and dump-ashcan in the queasy-quiet rich neighborhoods of New York with his friend, Corliss Lamont, the proletarian son of the late, unhappy Tom Lamont, chairman of the board of J. P. Morgan.

Mr. Lamont set up a fund for Corliss which yields him about $5,000 a month for life.

★

In happy cooperation, Corliss and F. V. Field get out a batch of 15 papers for a string of CIO unions in which the communist line is seldom if ever challenged. If F. V. Field is taking Marshall Field's place as backer of the thing, that would be a pleasant arrangement for all concerned except the Herald Tribune. After all, the Herald Tribune has been going after the thing's type of circulation lately with features and a political and editorial approach similar to Marshall Field's.

Youths Held In Robbery Of Grocery

Crime Wave Believed Solved By Arrests

Robbery of the Wellborn grocery on Hedges street, an attempted holdup and three auto thefts were cleared up by Mansfield detectives today with the arraignment in municipal court of two 18-year-old youths charged with armed robbery.

The youths, Sylvester Thomas, Louisville, Ky., and Johnny Clifton Hargrove, 819 Bowman street, pleaded innocent, waived preliminary hearing and were held to the grand jury under $5,000 bond each.

They were arrested in Loudonville May 14 when they were apprehended for operating a car without a tail light. Before releasing them Town Marshal R. G. Schnittke decided to check with Mansfield police to see if they were wanted, and upon learning they were implicated in the $70 Wellborn grocery holdup, held them for detectives.

Besides the Hedges street holdup, the pair confessed trying to strong-arm W. R. Hainer, 62 Bartley avenue, May 11 on North Mulberry street, and stole three cars, one of which was recovered in Loudonville, Mansfield detectives said.

Hainer was approached by the two men as he was getting into his car at Third and Mulberry streets, and one pushed a gun into his face and tried to force him into his car, he told police. His shouts scared the two and they fled.

The youths were picked up while riding in the car of James Barnes, 553 Lily street. Detective F. Bruce Friday said they stole the car May 14 while it was parked on North Main street.

They also stole cars from John Stirip, Pavonia, whose car was parked at the union depot the night of May 10, and on the same evening took the car of Floyd Banks, 335 Davis road, detectives said.

Herman Sells, co-owner of the Hartman restaurant, 187 West Sixth street, reported to police at 2:19 a. m. that he found the back door forced open. Police reported a cash register had been rifled of $55 in bills and change and that a jar behind the counter had been emptied of $18.

Joseph Grassel, 349 Orange street, reported that someone had lifted his billfold, containing $67, from his girl friend's purse while they were at the Madison theater last night.

Also reported yesterday was the shoplifting of a $7 alarm clock from the Frank Mitsch market, 417 Orange street.

Teacher Modestly Accepts Honors

By MARGUERITE MILLER

A tiny, white-haired woman bent over the crayon work of her third-generation "beginners" Tuesday afternoon at Rebecca Grubaugh school.

It was the school's namesake herself who has taught in the same room at the school on Western avenue for 36 years.

By act of the Mansfield board of education, the gentle educator with 55 years service in the city public school system has been given one of the highest honors bestowed on any instructor in Mansfield school history. As far as can be determined, she is the first Mansfield school teacher to have a building named for her during her lifetime.

"I had no idea it was coming now. . . . I don't know whether I'm in school or some place else," she said excitedly, then with her customary modesty of the inspiration she has given to hundreds of Mansfielders, she continued: "I don't know why they did it—I'm just an ordinary person."

The school board knew why. Supt. W. L. Miller summed it up:

"I've never had a case like Miss Grubaugh's in 33 years in school, or anyone whose enthusiasm has kept up through the years. Her enthusiasm and interest are those of a young person both for methods and work with children."

MILLER'S IDEA

It was Supt. Miller's idea—"ever since we began the new addition" — that Western Avenue school where Miss Grubaugh opened the first grade classroom in 1912, should be re-named for her. After much persuasion he won her consent last week—but only if the renaming would be conducted with severe simplicity.

"She said a 'little plaque in the hall' would be plenty," the superintendent related, "but we've already looked at the name stone on the front of the building with a view to at least removing the present name. If I'm not mistaken the public will not let us stop until her name is in its place."

Until now, Miss Grubaugh has had no notion of the "fuss" to be made over her or that next fall will see a fitting dedication of the building in her name

"I certainly appreciate the honor," she said haltingly, "but . . ." She stopped and smiled. A mist was in her eyes.

WANT HER TO STAY

"I've enjoyed my work very much. . . . You know, people ask me if I'll be here in two or three years, that they have children coming on.

"It's gratifying to know that they are thinking about you and want to know if you'll teach their children—but, oh my, don't put that in the story!"

But that belongs in the story of Rebecca Grubaugh as surely as she belongs in the hearts of every Mansfielder who learned his ABC's under her. It's not unusual that Mansfielders are anxious to have their children begin their school days with her. Many of the parents of her first graders through the years were once wide-eyed "beginners" under her care.

Miss Grubaugh has remembered every pupil who ever came timidly through the door on the first day of school. Throughout four years of war, she never forgot to ask about Johnny or Jimmy—where they were, how they were—or to send that card from the hometown that meant so much at Christmastime.

Yesterday, Miss Grubaugh was on the receiving end of the congratulations that streamed in from neighbors, friends, school fellows and former pupils. Most of the notes were addressed to "Beckie," the affectionate name Miss Grubaugh has been known by for years.

And the spirit of them all seemed to be captured most fittingly in a prompt note from the mother of a former pupil who ended with:

"It couldn't have happened to a nicer person!"

TWA Asks 10 Million

Airline Seeks Big RFC Loan

Trans World Airline applied to the Reconstruction Finance corporation yesterday for a loan of $10,000,000.

TWA, one of the major airlines of the U. S. which makes six daily flights into Mansfield, is indebted to the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S. in the sum of $40,000,000.

TWA said it does not have funds with which to meet a $1,000,000 payment due May 28 on the $40,000,000 loan, and on other obligations maturing in the near future.

Unless TWA is able to obtain such funds by the due date, it said, the entire $40,000,000 loan from Equitable, plus $8,000,000 of other loans, will become due and payable immediately.

Warren Lee Pierson, TWA chairman, told the RFC that losses last year were $8,000,000 despite "the most rigid economies" during which 3,000 employes were laid off. The previous year's loss was $14,500,000. The first quarter of this year also was in the red.

Groups Push For Rehearing

Plant Offices Change Hours

Agitation for the reopening of the daylight saving time issue is growing in Mansfield.

Petitions are being circulated in the downtown area asking council to reconsider the issue. Council turned down a "fast time" proposal March 22 by a vote of 6 to 3.

The offices of three large industrial firms are now starting work an hour earlier and quitting an hour earlier so that their offices will be open during the same hours as offices in cities on "fast time."

It was learned today that council may consider the time proposal in view of apparent growing sentiment for the change to keep pace with other cities to the north and east of Mansfield.

Council is scheduled to meet in special session tonight, and there is a possibility that the time question will be discussed. The next regular council meeting is June 1.

Although neither the Chamber of Commerce nor the Manufacturers' club plans to make any official pronouncement for or against "fast time," it was learned that several other large Mansfield plants plan to start work an hour earlier. New schedules are in effect at the Barnes Manufacturing, Tappan Stove and Westinghouse plants.

OPPOSED CHANGE

A News-Journal poll taken before the council vote showed a 70 per cent vote against a change to "fast time."

Individual polls taken by the councilmen among their constituents seem to indicate pretty much of a 50-50 split and council did not want to make a change when the margin was so close.

Several councilmen indicated then that they felt the issue should be decided by the people of the city. They said that if enough persons wanted daylight saving time, they could start an initiative referendum and could have the question placed on the November ballot.

Several other towns in the area have decided to change, or are operating on "fast time," including Ashland and Wooster. The majority of towns in the Cleveland area are already operating on daylight saving time.

Legion Honors New Citizens

Thirteen persons who became citizens earlier this month have been invited to "I Am An American" ceremonies sponsored by the American Legion, McVey post tonight.

Rev. Charles F. Sheriff chairman of the citizenship committee, will make the address at the American Legion hall. The new citizens will be given pamphlets on citizenship.

Bryan Styert, post manager, said 57 members of McVey post who have been American Legionnaires for 30 years will receive "30-year" membership cards.

They will be honored, starting with a banquet at 6:30 p. m. The cards are signed by the state commander, Aaron J. Holloran.

P-TA School Program Set

Program and speakers for the Mansfield Parent-Teachers' association instruction school, to be held here June 4, were announced last night at the regular meeting of the P-TA council in John Simpson Junior high school.

Speakers will include Mrs. Keith Weigle, state P-TA Congress president, and Mrs. I. W. Basinger of Mansfield, junior past president of the state congress.

Meetings will be held in St. John's church with dinner served between the afternoon and evening sessions.

Arrangements also were made for the council president, Mrs. E. G. Pankow, and another still unnamed delegate to attend the National P-TA convention in Cleveland, May 24, 25 and 26. All local P-TA units in the city are invited to send delegates.

Tygers Win Tournament Title Again

By CHARLEY STINE

Lou Gregorio, Senior high pitching star, rocketed himself into state-wide prominence yesterday as he pitched his second consecutive no-hit game to give the Tygers the district baseball championship. Mansfield defeated Willard, 1 to 0, at Liberty park.

It was drama all the way as Gregorio himself and every person present was conscious of his previous no-hitter and counting the batters to the second.

Only three men reached base off the little hurler who was never faster. Gill, Willard lead-off man, walked to open the game and again in the third inning, while the third got on by a clean-cut error. Don Gross kicked McDowell's grounder into foul territory with one out in the seventh inning. A fast double play which went from Gregorio to Sparkie Watts to Gross ended the game.

16 IN RUNNING

Almost overlooked in the excitement was the fact that the victory gave Mansfield the district championship for the fourth straight year and advanced them to the regional tournament which will be played in Bowling Green Friday. They are one of 16 Class A teams still in the running for the state title.

Drawings for the regional have already been made and the Tygers named to face Columbus Central at 12:30 p. m. Champions from the Ada and Toledo districts will meet at 10:30 a. m. with the winners vying at 3:30.

Gregorio's no-hitter added to the brilliant record of the Tyger pitching staff which seems to get better every game. Tyger pitchers have now hurled three straight shutouts and allowed a grand total of five hits in the last four games.

Shelly Swank won the tournament opener from Ashland, 3-0, and Gregorio downed Galion, 6-0, Saturday. Last game before the tournament was the 7-1 victory over Willard in which Watts and Swank teamed up to allow but a single safety.

GET LONE RUN

Mansfield's lone run in yesterday's game came in the second inning. Joe Miller led off with a single over shortstop, stole second, went to third on a balk and came home on Phil Rogers' single down the right field line.

The Tygers collected three more hits after that but aparently were too much concerned over Gregorio's pitching feats to settle down to get runs. They played fine ball in the field and committed nothing resembling an error until Gross' fumble.

Professional Golfers Tee Off In 30th Joust Today

ST. LOUIS—(INS)—A classy field, headed by defending champion Jim Ferrier, tees off today in the 30th annual Professional Golfers' association tournament at Norwood Hills Country club in St. Louis county.

Opening day activities are confined to the first half of the 36-hole qualifying round for match play duels that won't come to an end until next Tuesday. The second 18 holes of the qualifying round will be played tomorrow.

There was no pressure on Ferrier and nine other men in this initial phase of the tournament. Eight of the others are former PGA winners Ben Hogan, Bob Hamilton, Sam Snead, Vic Ghezzi, Denny Shute, Johnny Revolta and Gene Sarazen and National Open Champion Lew Worsham who are exempt from qualifying.

The ninth man automatically moving into the first-round match play is Ray Schwartz, the home professional.

PROS FIGURE

Par for the 6,467-yard hilly course is 71. Some of the contestants figure a two-round 138 or 139 would be good enough to capture medalist honors. They also figure a 145 or 146 would be necessary to get into the championship play.

A field of 135 golfers is entered in the tournament. The low scorers in the qualifying rounds will number 55. They will begin match play Friday together with the automatic qualifiers.

Big Car Races Scheduled On Ashland Track

ASHLAND — Big car racing makes its 1948 debut in North Central Ohio Sunday at the Ashland county fairground speedway under the auspices of the Tri-State Racing association.

Twenty-five cars are expected to make up the season's inaugural field and the line-up will include a number of the country's prominent drivers.

Heading the parade of gas-buggy jockeys will be Carl Scarbough of Kego Harbor, Mich., and Wayne Wynn of Tampa, Fla.

These two speedsters have been big favorites at the Ashland speedway for three straight years. Scarbough harvested most of the honors in last year's races. Wynn, 1946 Southern States champion, finished a close second on two occasions here a year ago.

Frankie Lupto of Detroit, Red Bayles of Columbus and Buck Barr of Altoona, Pa., also will be on hand and they'll push the pedals to the floor in an attempt to steal the spotlight away from Scarbough and Wynn.

SETS NEW MARK

A week ago Scarbough set a new track record at Tiffin in spinning around the Seneca county fairground oval in 26.41 seconds.

Seven events will make up Sunday's program starting with time trials at noon. The main show will ge under way at 2:30 with the first of three eight-lap preliminaries. A four-lap helmet dash will follow and on its heels will come a consolation event for all non-money winners in the prelims. The final event will be the 20-lap main-go bringing together as many as 12 cars.

The track will be treated with calcium chloride to keep it dust free.

Don Carr of Jackson, Mich., will display his racer in front of the Mansfield Montgomery Ward store at about noon Saturday.

Softball Head

WILLARD — Omar Hosler of Willard has been appointed Huron county softball commissioner, by Fred Smith of Elyria, fifth district head. Hosler will operate the county tournament from which three teams will be sent to compete in the district.

Shelby Loses To Sandusky

SHELBY — Sandusky high school handed Shelby its worst golf defeat of the year yesterday on the Mills Creek course in Sandusky, 13 to 2.

The Whippets end their season tomorrow at Wooster. The two teams tied 6-6 earlier in the year.

Ralph Kiner Breaks Up Another Game; Pittsburgh Nips Boston Braves, 5-4

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

If Ralph Kiner continues to break up ball games, official scorers may have to add a new line in the major league baseball box scores labeled "winning hitter—Kiner."

The Pittsburgh power hitter, whose 51 four baggers tied him with Johnny Mize of the New York Giants for the National league leadership last year, won another game for the Pirates yesterday with his home run bat.

GETS 8TH HOMER

Kiner slammed his eighth homer of the season with a mate aboard in the eighth inning last night to give the Pirates a 4-3 victory over Bill Voiselle and the Braves in Boston.

It marked the fourth time this season that a Kiner blast provided the winning runs for the Buccaneers.

A freak in the percentage table gave the Cleveland Indians the American league lead over Philadelphia despite the fact they trailed the Athletics by a half game. The mathematical oddity occurred when the Indians defeated the A's last night, 6-1, in Cleveland. It was their 14th win in 20 starts for a .700 percentage, a four point lead over the A's who have won 16 and lost seven for .696.

Enos Slaughter, the Cards' "money player," and big Red Munger collaborated to give the Redbirds a 4-3 win over the Dodgers in Ebbets field. Slaughter's tremendous home run with one on in the sixth inning provided the winning margin for the Cards, who extended their current winning streak to four straight.

The St. Louis Browns handed the New York Yankees a surprise 6-5 trimming and inflicted the season's first defeat upon right-hander Allie Reynolds. The Yankees' Indian hurler had won his first five starts.

At Detroit, the Tigers spotted the visiting Red Sox a 6-0 lead and then tallied seven runs off Dave Ferriss and two successors to win, 10-7. The defeat snapped a four-game winning streak for the Red Sox.

The Washington Senators won a 5-4 twelve-inning victory over the White Sox in Chicago. It was the Sox' 11th defeat in their last 12 games.

The Giants inaugurated their home night season by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 6-5, to remain within a game and a half of the National league lead.

The Chicago Cubs topped the Phillies, 3-2, at Philadelphia. All Cubs' runs were unearned.

Five Junior Baseball 9's Organized

Five teams were organized at a Hot Stove league junior baseball meeting last night at North Lake park.

Seventy-five youngsters from the second and third wards and the Roseland district attended the meeting. Three teams were formed for the 13-14-15 Junior league and two for the 16-17-18 Major league.

The teams will pick their own managers and field captains.

Gene Hartnett, chairman of the Hot Stove junior baseball committee, Stan Kamen and Fred Rizzo were in charge of the meeting.

Three other organization meetings are scheduled this week. Tonight Ward 5 and the Madison district meet at the Sons of Herman hall. Tomorrow, Wards 1 and 4 meet at the YMCA and Friday Ward 6 meets at John Todd park. All sessions start at 7:30 p. m.

Komito's Clothes opened the Mansfield softball league competition with a bang last night by defeating Greystone Nite club, 12 to 0, on the Prospect park diamond.

Kenny Windsor, on the mound for the winners, gave up only four hits and struck out 18 of the opposing batsmen. He walked four.

The Komito's team clubbed two Greystone pitchers for 10 hits, including a home run by Bechtler. Komito's counted three runs in the second inning and drove starter Dick Logan from the mound with an eight run burst in the fourth frame.

Stan Kamen reported this morning that American Legion Post 72 defeated Ohio Sport Center, 3 to 0, last night at Johns park. Penn Auto drew a bye.

Night Softball Tilt Slated At New G-R Field

The first night softball game ever played here is scheduled for 8:30 tonight when Gorman-Rupp and Tappan Stove take the field under the new Gorman-Rupp lights.

Manager Nick Weber will start the veteran Dale McKinley against Tappan with "Tick" Hamilton behind the dish. The Stove first shift team will use Marvin DeLong and George Curry as a battery.

It will be the first game of the season for the G-R softballers, while Tappan has won six of seven exhibition tilts.

Admission will be free tonight. There is plenty of parking space.

Although tonight's game will be the first under the new lights, official dedication ceremonies are scheduled for Friday when Gorman-Rupp entertains Wooster in the Inter-City league opener. Elaborate festivities are being planned.

Westbrook Loop To Open May 28

The Westbrook Country club golf league will begin play Friday May 28, instead of this week as originally planned.

Twelve teams will complete the loop but vacancies are still present in some of the lineups. Tom Raklets, pro at the club, is attempting to line up about a half dozen more players needed for the formation of the league.

Cleveland Takes First Place

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Cleveland's slugging Indians, by a narrow percentage margin of .004, were back in first place in the American league today.

Behind the six-hit hurling of Gene Bearden, the Tribe detoured Philadelphia last night by taking a 6 to 1 decision over the Athletics before 44,231 fans.

The rookie southpaw, posting his second victory, kept the Athletic blows confined to singles three coming in the fifth inning when they scored their only run.

Lou Brissie opened for the visitors, but was knocked out in the second inning as the Indians sent four men across the plate. The 24-year-old lefthander was touched for five hits during his stay and was exceptionally wild.

Bob Savage and Charley Harris followed him to the mound and allowed only three blows.

The Indians lost no time in going to work, two men crossing the plate in the opening inning. Thurman Tucker, the first batter to face Brissie, walked and Allie Clark tripled him home. An infield roller by Joe Gordon scored Clark.

Pat Seerey started the scoring in the second when he walked, advanced to second on Jim Hegan's single and then came in on Gene Bearden's one-bagger.

Another single by Tucker pushed over Hegan. And a triple to the right field corner by Eddie Robinson scored Bearden and Tucker for the final Cleveland markers.

The Athletics' run was made when Buddy Rosar, former Cleveland catcher, opened the fifth with a single, was sacrificed to second and tallied on another single by Eddie Joost.

The two teams conclude their two-game series tonight.

Bobby Feller was to start for Cleveland. Bill Dietrich or Joe Coleman were expected to oppose him.

City to See Newest Navy Equipment

Mobile Exhibit To Arrive Next Monday

A. U. S Naval Mobile exhibit, complete with displays of the weapons and secrets that won the naval war, will arrive in Mansfield Monday for a two-day showing. The display will open Tuesday.

The display, which will take up the entire west side of Central park, is hauled in four vans, a bus and four auxiliary vehicles, including a power plant for the exhibit. It will be open to the public both days from 1 to 9 p. m.

The exhibit is accompanied by 20 enlisted men and two officers under Commander J J Morgan, USNR. The exhibit will be manned by trained instructors ready to demonstrate the operation of all displays

Movies will be shown both evenings and special entertainment is planned for Wednesday night. There will be no charge.

Besides containing displays from all the different bureaus of the Navy department, the Navy's road show has a complete radar system which will be operated under simulated combat conditions. Planes will circle Mansfield from five to 20 miles to serve as live "targets" for the demonstrations.

In the Combat information center van, Mansfielders will see how the operator tracks the plane on the scope of the closely-guarded secret of the war, how he determines their altitude, speed and bearing in a few seconds They also will hear the operator communicate with the plane pilot

Portable Refineries Will Make 'Back Yard' Gasoline

By HOWARD W BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

TULSA, Okla —(AP)— 'Back yard" gasoline, to be made by a portable refinery, is promised at the international petroleum exposition here.

An oil refinery on wheels will let the small oil producers convert their petroleum directly into gasoline. This has been a dream of the oil industry for many years.

The first such plant is designed for men who produce from 50 to 1,000 barrels of oil a day There are thousands of them In fact, they produce about 75 per cent of the nation's oil

These men never have been able to make gasoline That requires a refinery, and these plants cost from a million to fifteen million dollars each, besides being of huge sizes. Only big industry could do the refining

The portable, a plant to be carried on a few trucks, and to be set up in a week, is the work of George E Failing, one of the most famous oil men of the southwest

His concern the George E Failing Supply company of Enid Okla is one of the big exhibitors at this exposition

Failing has finished the pilot plant stage with his portable refinery He says the details are a secret, but that the small refinery is made possible by the use of high pressures He says it has essentially the same parts as a big refinery unit

Failing says that his portable will produce auto grades of gasoline, including the common high test It will not, he says, produce aviation gasoline

He expects the crude oil will in most cases be converted 100 per cent into gasoline

Piles Are Never "Mild"
DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves, instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Galion Ministerial Association Asks Ban on Sunday Beer

Electric Power Rates Are Raised

Council Approves Hospital Post

GALION — A petition from the Galion Ministerial association requesting passage of an ordinance to close establishments selling beer and intoxicating liquor on Sunday in Galion, the passage of the revised electric light rate ordinance hiking light rates and the creation of the position of superintendent of nurses at City Hospital highlighted another lively session of City Council last night.

The petition from the ministers, which was referred to City Solicitor George Davies, asks enactment of "an ordinance requiring all establishments that sell beer and intoxicating beverages to close at midnight, Saturday, and remain closed through Sunday until 5:30 a. m. Monday."

A spokesman for the ministers said many complaints had been received from citizens regarding the selling of intoxicating beverages on Sundays.

The ordinance to raise electric power rates in Galion was approved unanimously on third reading. It goes into effect immediately.

An emergency measure to create the office of superintendent of nurses at City hospital, at a salary of $225 a month plus maintenance, was passed. Magdalene Merle, former Army nurse, recently was appointed to this position.

Indication that Council will soon get back to the consideration of additional electric energy for the city came when a councilman asked if the service-safety director had any report to make pertaining to additional power for the city. The director, John F. Porter, replied that while he had not had a request for such a report, he would be glad to make one.

AVC Committee Heads Appointed

American Veterans Committee committee chairmen were selected at a meeting of the group last night.

William Spring was named to the membership committee; Richard Henry, to the social committee; Wally Thormaehler, to the veterans' affairs committee; Charles Wheeler, to the publicity committee; Richard Armen to the legislative committee, and Harold Hammer to the sports committee.

Massillon Choir Sings In Mansfield

A "good-will" exchange brought the 90-voiced Massillon high school choir to Senior high school yesterday for a third-period assembly for the entire student body. A week ago, Mansfield's choir went to Massillon to present a program.

Walter Lippmann Speaks

U. N. Might Secure Palestine Peace

It is much too early to write off the United Nations as a failure in Palestine. In fact only now, after the events of last Friday, is the Security Council, or the United States as a member of it, in a position to take the kind of action which in the American official view is required by the Charter.

Action by the Security Council to keep the peace could not begin until the United Kingdom ceased to be responsible for the government of Palestine and until the state of Israel had been recognized as its legal successor in the territory defined by the General Assembly.

Up to Friday of last week the Security Council could have acted to maintain international peace in Palestine only if Great Britain, as the legal government, had said it was the victim of aggression. Britain did not say this. Therefore, the fighting in Palestine was internal disorder, like the uprising in Bogota, and not a breach of international peace.

Even though the violence was aided and abetted by Arab governments outside of Palestine, there was no case before the Security Council as long as the British government did not choose to call upon the Security Council for help. This is a crucial point in any understanding of what has happened in Palestine and of what is now going to happen.

The problem of Palestine could not come before the Security Council in the form which enables the council to act to maintain peace until there was a government in Palestine which called upon it for help. Thus, it would have been impossible for the Security Council to take action against the external guerrilla forces in Greece if on Dec. 3, 1946, the Greek government had not requested it under Articles 34 and 35 of the Charter.

Any invasion of the territary of Israel as defined in the United Nations' resolution by the armed forces of Egypt, Syria, Iraq or Trans-Jordan is now an unmistakable act of aggression which the Security Council is obligated to oppose.

ACTION POSSIBLE

The whole machinery of the United Nations' organization can now be set in motion to arrest the aggression and to bring about a settlement of what is now, and only now, a clear-cut problem of international peace.

There is no evidence as this article is written that the king of Trans-Jordan has committed aggression. The entry of his forces into the Arab portion of Palestine is not an act of aggression since there is now no state and no government in that territory. If he intends to occupy the territory up to the frontiers of Israel, and to respect the international status of Jerusalem, he has as good a legal title as anyone to do just that.

If he does that, the prospects of a reasonable settlement—that is to say of a peace treaty—should be reasonably good. For the kingdom of Trans-Jordan is a British satellite state. It was created by the British government, its king was set upon his throne by Britain, its government derives almost all its revenues from Britain, its army is led by British officers, it has been trained and equipped by the British government, and it is bound by treaty to Great Britain.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR MANSFIELD, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1948

While other candidates have been winning popularity polls and gaining commentators to trumpet for them, Senator Taft has been quietly rounding up the biggest number of delegates pledged to any candidate. Senator Taft is a practical man.

Those Suggestions About OSR

SERIOUS thought is merited by the recommendation of the Ohio State Reformatory advisory committee that the Mansfield institution be transformed into a second penitentiary. Such action may be advisable under a general plan of revamping Ohio's penal system. And certainly something should be done about placing juvenile offenders in the same prison with adult criminals.

However, it might also be well to consider that the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield has become a somewhat historic and certainly a widely known institution. Efforts have been made here to develop a sound rehabilitation program for inmates. The Grafton honor farm has been operated with reasonable success. An educational program has been carried forward.

It is to be hoped that in any changes under advisement a way will be found to build upon the foundation of the character restoring phases of the operation at OSR.

This appears possible under the suggestion that "more hopeful type offenders" would be incarcerated here.

Surely it would be unwise just to turn the institution into a mammoth jail, abandoning the program of helping inmates which has been built up. But this apparently is not contemplated—and should not be.

Mansfielders will be glad to see the institution fitted into a better penal system for the entire state. They will also expect to see careful judgment exercised in retaining advances that have been made here in the rehabilitation of social offenders.

Another Wartime Hangover Gone

ADOPTION of uniform store hours by 95 per cent of Mansfield's merchants is bound to receive eventual approval of nearly every one. The jumbled shopping times that grew out of wartime efforts to accommodate people who were working unusual hours had gradually become disconcerting to the customer, the clerk, and the merchant.

To put it simply, "You never could be sure who was open when."

Now Mansfielders will know that they can get into the great majority of downtown stores any week day between 9:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. The 5:30 closing time will be appreciated by the many office workers who found themselves getting out of work at just the time a number of stores were previously closing—5 p. m.

The Monday night closing will probably be no inconvenience at all after a few weeks. Indeed, having the stores remain open on Monday night was admittedly an abnormal business situation brought on by the war and no longer required.

And for the convenience of homemakers many neighborhood stores will continue to serve residential districts after the downtown closing hours all through the week and on Sunday.

Certainly Mansfield's merchants have taken a logical step in establishing uniform opening and closing hours and the public will be appreciative even though the individual customer may not take the trouble to say so.

German Reparations Aid Europe

ACCORDING to a report in the Military Government Journal, industry in Europe is being materially helped by reparations from Germany.

Steel production in Great Britain and in France has been stepped up, optical machinery sent to Holland has made a difference of $100,000 a year, and the production of sulphuric acid and of soap in France has been greatly increased by the use of machinery shipped under the reparations program.

Thus Germany's own recovery lags, while her resources are used to build up the countries she had ravished. To those who suffered from German aggression, this seems only fair.

Full recovery for Europe will only be possible, however, when Germany's industries, too, have reached their full capacity. This interdependence is a fact to be reckoned with. Also to be taken into account is the fact that Germany's production, in quantity and in kind, must be watched for any trend toward preparation for war.

The Father of Glacier Park

A COLONIZER of Empire was the name given to the late Louis W. Hill, son of the "empire builder," James J. Hill, the president of the Great Northern railroad, who built and developed this great road and thus made possible the growth of the Pacific Northwest. Louis Hill started railroading at the bottom, and worked up to the top, carrying on his father's work.

He will be longest remembered, however, for Glacier National park. He built the first road there, decided on the Swiss chalet style of architecture which has done so much to make the park attractive, gave liberally to the park and persuaded others to do likewise. His influence was great also in having this made a national park in 1910.

Few achievements of any man have given so much pleasure to others, and will continue to do so throughout the years.

FCC's Little Lamb

IT WAS inevitable that congress some day would catch up with the rather bizarre dealings of the FCC in favor of left-wingers. This is manifest in the blast by Representative Hebert (D-La) against grants to Edward Lamb, Toledo attorney and owner of WTOD, as well as holder of six authorizations for TV and FM.

For many months we have called attention in these columns to those untoward and oft-times unexplained actions. The FCC legal staff has been uncommonly persuasive in getting the commission to smile benignly on the radical elements while raising unshirted hell with corporate applicants or licensees, notably those identified with newspapers.

This is not to condemn all seven members of the FCC—five of whom have served two years or less. Nor it is an indictment of all of the commission's lawyers. It is a reflection upon—or a compliment to—that small clique of lawyers and so-called experts and economists who have trumped up these situations and sold them to the commission, largely through the office of Comr. Clifford J. Durr, the Alabama Democrat whose term ends June 30.

The FCC compains it is overburdened with work and is understaffed. Most of that burden has developed in the artificial stimulation of crusades in the broadcast field.

Many of the FCC troubles, we venture, will evaporate with the departure of Stormy Petrel Durr. For then the long-haired boys in the back room won't have their Charlie McCarthy on the commission talking out of the left side of his mouth.—(From "Broadcasting," leading trade publication of the radio industry.)

People Entitled To Know U. S. Policy

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — The fiasco over the once-projected American-Russian discussion of differences looking to an end of the "cold war" has so many intriguing angles that it continues to excite interest.

It goes, in one respect, to the whole question of open or secret diplomacy.

Much has been made of the fact that Russia broadcast to the world a note from our ambassador, Bedell Smith, which presumably was confidential, though no actual ban was put on it. But, if we meant what we said in that note, then what is wrong with our people knowing about it? After all, our people have a fateful stake in our foreign relations no matter what some diplomats may think about it.

A natural inference from all the hullabaloo about the note being made public would be that our state department proceeds on the theory that its business is none of the people's business, though no such accusation is made here as we know that isn't true. It is not a nice commentary, however, that we have to find these things out through a breach of diplomatic ethics or etiquette, or whatever it was, by some other nation, though it is healthy that we have.

It is high time, after all we've been through, to stop treating our foreign relations as a mystery about which only a select few are entitled to know. Those in charge as well learn now that people are weary and disgusted with that attitude. Certainly millions of young men who fought in the last war expected something different.

And it is discouraging, too, once your hopes are lifted up by something that looks finally like straight-across-the-table-dealing, the direct man-to-man approach, to have it all explained away as to literal reading of something that certainly seemed plain to the layman, in other words, a resort to the diplomatic subterfuge.

* * *

A Way To Answer.

It would seem that our government had an obvious way to meet the Russian maneuver by seizing the opportunity to go right back with our own list of grievances against Russia, as Foreign Minister Molotov listed theirs, thus laying down a common and joint basis from which negotiations might proceed. That likewise, would have served another purpose. We might have made a test right there of Russia's sincerity by noting whether she also lifted the Iron Curtain to publish such a statement of our grievances to her own people.

Secretary Marshall said that the United Nations and other bodies were the proper places to discuss and settle our differences, not by direct negotiations. Yet the European recovery program which formerly bore the secretary's name—"The Marshall Plan" was negotiated outside the UN as was pointed out by Mr. Molotov who argued it should have been done within the UN. And we did invite Russia into the preliminary negotiations for that outside the UN, and she did send her Mr. Molotov who, however, walked out. So there is full precedent on both sides for negotiating outside UN.

Our Truman doctrine program in Greece and Turkey also was initiated directly by us, outside the UN. It may be recalled that this aroused such a public outcry at the time—the Gallup poll showed an overwhelming public sentiment for handling it within the UN—that our American delegate to the security council, Warren R. Austin, was summoned hot-foot here to Washington for conferences. To assuage the public clamor, a proviso was inserted in the act to notify the UN of what we were doing and to keep it informed of developments under our program. It may be recalled also that a United Nations agency, the Food and Agricultural organization, had prepared many weeks before a complete plan for rehabilitation of Greece within the framework of UN, but President Truman's argument was that the UN was not equipped then to do the job.

Secretary Marshall knows full well that the success of the UN depends upon settlement between us and Russia of a number of major problems. We might as well face the fact that the UN at this stage, for all intents and purposes, revolves about the United States and Russia. If we could get together, then the UN could function effectively.

The practical way to remove the differences between us is through direct negotiations. Once that were done—and it would not be at all simple or easy—then we could go forward to strengthening UN and make it into something approaching real world government which it must become eventually.

As said here before, Ambassador Smith and Mr. Molotov started something with their conference and their notes, and we might as well take hold boldly, without quibbling about diplomatic amenities and protocol, and lift the cloud that hangs over the world.

Washington Calling

Palestine Issue Muddled

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — No issue in many years has so confused the average American as the issue of Palestine. One obvious reason, of course, is that policy-makers in Washington have themselves appeared to be overwhelmed by confusion.

There are other reasons, too. The ordinary citizen has sensed that a deep injustice has been done to the Jews, who have seen a whole series of promises broken. But at the same time a current of conflicting propaganda has made for doubt and uncertainty.

Among the Jews in this country the divisions are deep. The terrorist acts of the Stern gang in Palestine have alienated some sympathy for those who failed to realize that this is a tiny minority in a people struggling mightily to maintain discipline under conditions of desperate provocation.

At least a half dozen times the United States has taken positions that no one was prepared to back up. That is the primary reason why so many people feel they cannot find any reason in the welter of headlines about Palestine. The most conspicuous example, of course, was partition, which came about because of U. S. pressure. But when the full implications of this move were apparent, then the U. S. backed down, or, to put it more accurately, the little group in the state and defense departments that had all along opposed partition succeeded in getting it nullified.

It is this background that raises doubts about President Truman's sudden and dramatic move in according recognition to the new state of Israel. The move was a bold one. It should hearten the embattled Jews now defending what they have for 30 years considered their homeland.

But the decision for partition was also a bold one. If recognition is to be merely a gesture, then it can be worse than empty.

After all, the United States "recognized" Loyalist Spain all through the desperate years when that duly constituted government was being destroyed with the help of Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy. Materials of war were going to Germany while an embargo kept them from the Loyalists in Spain.

The test will come in the meaning of recognition. Will the Arabs continue to have access to arms from the outside while an embargo prevents the Jews at the head of a duly constituted state from buying the materials they need in this country or elsewhere?

The very fact that one can talk of the conflict in these terms is to show how great is the peril to the peace of the world. In spite of the talk of invading Egyptian and Syrian armies, there is a comfortable assumption that the forces of the Arabs will not be too great for the forces of Israel to withstand. But that has almost too easy a sound.

* * *

The Arab Threat.

Thur far, it is true, the Arabs have seemed so divided and so impotent that those who built them into a powerful bogey must feel more than a little foolish. But if they move with a unified and powerful force, the threat to the peace of the Near East and, in fact, to the world will be great. Those within the United Nations who have been forced to stand by while constructive policy has been sabotaged and the prestige of the U. N. dangerously and perhaps fatally weakened will then be able to say, "I told you so."

There will, however, be small satisfaction in that. An ever-spreading war will call for positive action if it is not to continue to spread and once again stir a general conflagration.

In the murgy atmosphere of election-year Washington, there are all sorts of rumors about Palestine. From influential policy-makers come dark hints of pressure and the threat of exposure.

If it were possible to have a fair and honest inquiry, the public would be served. But that is quite obviously impossible. So we will continue to get a barrage of warring propaganda.

Now and then a shaft of truth cuts through the murk. Such is the Collier's article by Jorge Garcia Granados, Guatemala's delegate to the U. N. He tells of the intrigues, in which important Americans participated, to sabotage partition. It is a wretched story, full of shame and humiliation.

The only real hope is in the strength of the new state and the pioneering people who have created it. They have shown, long before Israel came into formal being, remarkable powers of resistance and endurance. Perhaps in the face of their unyielding resistance, a decent settlement will be possible, one that recognizes the rights and promises that go back for three decades.

As Cerf Tells It

"Did I ever tell you," inquired the garrulous war hero, "of the time I was aboard a destroyer that was torpedoed in mid-ocean? I had to live for 16 days on a can of sardines."

"Goodness," gasped the sweet young thing, "weren't you afraid of falling off?"

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Gas Lobby Scores; Bills May Rise

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It looks as if the nation's gas bill was going to be boosted after all. After first taking a defeat, the gas lobby, by some slick parliamentary sleight-of-hand, later scored a victory which may affect every housewife using natural gas.

The public is aware of the fact that the Senate commerce committee first slapped down the Moore-Rizley bill by a 9-to-4 vote. This bill would have taken $75,000,000 annually out of the pockets of gas consumers.

But what the public doesn't realize is that most features of the bill could be administered into law by the federal power commission, now split 50-50 on the Moore-Rizley principles. Commissioners Nelson Lee Smith and Harrington Wimberly have lined up with the natural gas lobby, but Commissioners Leland Olds and Claude Draper have vigorously opposed the bib pipeline owners. This means the fifth commissioner, Thomas Buchanan, now waiting confirmation by the Senate, holds the balance of power.

As a member of the Pennsylvania public utility commission for eight years, Buchanan carried on a fearless fight against the big power and gas interests. Now they are moving heaven and earth to block him from taking a seat on the federal power commission.

Here is how they have been able to do it so far, inside the Senate commerce committee:

After voting down the Moore-Rizley bill, the committee took up Buchanan's nomination. Routine approval was expected, since favorable hearings already had been held.

* * *

Battle of Maine Senators.

But Sen. Owen Brewster, Maine Republican and a friend of the utility interests, started setting off parliamentary booby traps. He moved to send the nomination back to a special subcommittee for further study. This would have delayed action until after November—when a Republican President, if elected, could pick his own man.

"This," protested Pennsylvania Democratic Sen. Francis Myers, "is just subterfuge to delay this nomination so it will never reach the calendar or else come up too late."

A rollcall vote was taken, and to everyone's surprise Chairman Wallace White, Maine Republican, sided with Myers. Stunned, Brewster, also a Maine Republican, blurted out: "You gave me your word this morning!"

"When you talked to me very briefly over the telephone this morning at my house, I was not fully conversant with the facts," explained White, who has a reputation for upholding the public interest. "I assume the blame for the misunderstanding."

* * *

Parliamentary Tricks.

White added that Buchanan "shouldn't be oposed on political grounds." Whereupon Brewster came back with another parliamentary trick—a motion to rule out proxies. Since the only two proxies were held by the Democrats for Sens. Tom Stewart of Tennessee and Earnest McFarland of Arizona, this would have given Brewster a majority. However, all his tricks to sidetrack the nomination were overthrown—temporarily.

At this point, Senator Ed Martin, Pennsylvania Republican, was permitted to make a statement before the committee. Under pressure from the power and gas lobby, Martin had obediently brought in two witnesses against Buchanan at the original hearings; but, under cross-examination, their testimony had backfired.

Now Martin claimed he had been "approached by several Senators from other states" who wanted him to "talk to several people" as possible witnesses. In other words, he wanted more time to go out looking for witnesses. Martin admitted that Buchanan is a "man of integrity," but opposed him nonetheless.

Backing up Martin, Indiana Republican Homer Capehart resurrected Brewster's motion for a special subcommittee to study Buchanan's nomination.

Caught in this dilemma, Myers agreed not to object to further study by a subcommittee, provided a time limit of two weeks was set for reporting out Buchanan's nomination. He wrung out this concession from Brewster, but the utility-minded senator from Maine won the final round. He was able to load the subcommittee with two Moore-Rizley supporters—Homer Capehart of Indiana and Albert Hawkes of New Jersey.

No Steel for Vet Prefabs.

War veterans got another kick in the pants the other day when 23 vice-presidents of steel companies vetoed the allocation of 60,000 tons of steel for prefabricated housing. This means that veteran cooperatives, formed to finance prefabricated housing developments, will have to fold up or go in for the more expensive conventional houses which most veterans can't afford.

The 23 steel vice-presidents are members of a so-called steel products advisory committee to Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer which passes on volunteer steel allocations under a law passed by Congress last year. However, the committee functions more like a little "supreme court" in determining who can buy steel.

Also, it does more dictating than advising, apparently, for the commerce department had okayed the 60,000 ton allocation, a third of what the prefab industry requested for new low-cost homes.

The steel moguls pointed out that prefabricated houses require four times as much steel as conventional homes built of wood, brick, etc. This explanation, however, is small comfort to war veterans and others who cannot afford conventional dwellings.

NOTE—The American Veterans committee has made a vigirous protest to Congress about the steel magnates' action.)

Diplomatic Hue and Cry

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — President Truman's prompt recognition of the new Jewish state of Israel has presented this capital city with a strange and somewhat frightening mystery to ponder.

The mystery is simply this: What is happening inside our state department?

Focal phase of the mystery is the question of why our diplomats, at home and abroad, suddenly started screaming they'd been given the old double-cross. They did it, of course, in diplomatic language and in polite, but unmistakably miffed, tones. But that's what it amounted to.

That's what has old-time Washington observers puzzled.

The cardinal rule of world diplomacy is a simple one. It is just this:

"Diplomats don't cry—at least, not openly while in office."

That is the chief reminder rammed down the throat of the young attache from the time he puts on his first pair of striped pants and enters that branch of his country's service.

It is one he never is supposed to forget—otherwise, he holds his country and its foreign policy up to the world for ridicule.

He may, of course, completely disagree with his superiors. Often that happens. He may argue with them at length, seeking to point out what he considers the fallacies in their point of view. But, if he is overruled, he must either abide by their decision, or resign his position.

In "abiding" by their decision, it does not even follow that he must be a hypocrite. He can simply refuse to discuss it on the "outside," relying on any number of perfectly plausible excuses.

He does not, under any circumstances, air the department's differences in public, while still in the department's service. To do so obviously would completely undermine any nation's foreign policy and immeasurably weaken its position in any international crisis.

That is a world diplomatic policy as well as an American diplomatic policy, and it holds true even in cases where the head of a given state appears to have reversed an official policy and "double-crossed" his ambassadors, consuls and lesser diplomats.

* * *

U. S. Followed Rule.

It also follows that the more rigidly that rule is observed, the stronger a nation's foreign policy and world position. During past decades, Britain has been a typical example of that.

Although Americans, more independent and individualistic by nature, tended to depart from the rule during the early days of our history, they eventually discovered that it was the only way to meet other world powers on even terms.

Then, no sooner had the President announced the recognition of Israel than suddenly, with a strange and frightening unanimity, the squawks began to sound from our diplomatic corps. Spokesmen at the state department here made no effort whatever to conceal their irritation. Ditto at Lake Success. Ditto at Paris, London and elsewhere.

The result was inevitable. Other world powers, including some critical of our latest Palestine stand, seized on the obvious rebellion within our state department and fanned the flames, letting it be known that they were irked at us and our President, too. Where it now will lead, no one knows. . . . And its cause is not pleasant to contemplate.

In the past, many Presidents have reversed themselves during crises, without waiting until the information was in the possession of every person wearing a pair of striped pants around the world. Presumably they will again—unless the old rule is changed and every junior diplomat is permitted to sound off every time he is irked at his nation's policy.

Which, coming from men who are appointed and not elected in this democracy, would be tantamount to the tail barking for the dog!

Farmer's Diary

A Town Man's Hobby

By CALVIN A. BYERS

(This columnist has always held to the opinion "Two heads are better than one." . . . Here's a column that fell out of my mail—I give it to you just as it came to me, with my thanks to a friendly contributor and to our mutual friend, Town Crier.)

"One of my wellwishers over the years is my friend of the near city—the Town Crier. We have met only twice, he and I,—both times when I was in the hospital. When he came to see me recently, to wish me a speedy recovery, he told me that visiting sick or elderly persons confined to their home or bed, was a longtime hobby of his. Sometimes he took a few flowers from his garden to them, or pilfered a bottle of excellent grape juice or tomato cocktail that his good wife had bottled for the family use. These visits were always brief. When his children were young, he frequently took one of them along. The calls were two to four weeks apart, and were continued usually until the end.

"He always aimed to talk about the things the person whom he visited used to do, or about where they had lived and their activities. Seldom about infirmaties or family troubles. One friend, a former railroad executive, he visited for more than ten years and always the talk was about the wonders of railroading and the progress of the railroad that this man had worked for. It ran through the big city.

"When I asked Town Crier what impelled him to do this kind of visiting, he gave the unusual answer that it was neither from charity nor a religious motive. His mother, dead years ago, sent him as a child with extra milk or buttermilk for old, infirm neighbors. She stressed to him that young folks should be thoughtful of the aged. She, herself, made quite a practice of visiting the sick in their home community.

"Enlightening further was his remark, as an afterthought, 'when I feel in the dumps, myself, and go to see somebody worse off than I am, it cheers me up. I realize how well-off I am—still in good health with many blessings of life still left me.

"'Most of all', he confided, 'I hope and cheer the lives of these older relatives and friends.'

"As he left my hospital bed, after his customary stand-up visit, he turned at the door. "I hope you'll have a speedy and complete recovery. I'm acrumulating some ailments of my own that maf get me down sofe day and I'm wondering if I'll ever have any young visitors. . . . I very mush doubt it!"

Grange Chief Backs Butter

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Joseph W Fichter, master of the Ohio State Grange, told the Senate finance committee Tuesday that the bill to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine could become a nation-wide political issue.

The measure would abolish the tax of one-fourth of a cent on uncolored margarine and 10 cents on the colored product.

Fichter, who also is chaplain of the National Grange, asserted the real purpose of the proposed legislation was "to make possible the manufacture and sale of colored oleo." He added in a statement prepared for the committee:

"The bill is important enough to become a major political issue in Ohio and perhaps on a nation-wide scale in the November elections.

"It brings to focus the conflict of interests between city and rural areas, and its enactment into law would be cause for farm people to conclude that they have once more been cast in the role of country cousins who produce food for the family but who should be satisfied to leave important decisions regarding their welfare to others."

Barre Granite
Backed by the seal of the Barre Guild From Barre Vermont extremely resistant to weathering and discoloring, unsurpassed for density and close texture. Takes the finest possible finish and holds it for long years to come

Wausau Granite
From Lake Wausau quarries, Wisconsin Combines fine texture and hardness assuring a memorial that will stand the test of time It takes a mirror-like polish and does not lose its color under the most severe climatic changes.

Missouri Red Granite
This native Missouri granite is one of the most popular materials. Its lustrous coloring presents a rich and glorious symbol of faith. Its hard close texture stands the test of time.

Our years of experience as memorial craftsmen have given us the ability to be of real service to our clients.

A beautiful memorial is a bridge of memory, spanning the years between the present and the past. Therefore beauty of material and design should be of first consideration. It is important, too, to know that the gleaming stone so carefully fashioned will withstand the test of time.

The monument we display are completely finished — carved from the best of monumental materials.

We have served hundreds of families in this area, and we invite you to ask them about our ability and integrity.

YOUNG SIMPLICITY . . . This youthful bridal gown, designed by Norman Norell, has a simple jewelry neckline and is floor length. She wears one diamond clip to fasten her tulle veil to her dress, the other sparkles against her hair.

REGAL DIGNITY . . . New off-the-shoulder wedding gown with tucked surplice collar, long train, designed by Joel. This bride wears a diamond necklace and earrings. Her peaked cap is embroidered in seed pearls.

(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

OLD Looks and New Looks may come and go, but the romantic tradition of the wedding gown remains basically unchanged through the ages

The object of a wedding gown is now and always has been to make the bride look as nearly as possible like an angel Though in everyday clothes she may be a confirmed tomboy, fond of blue jeans and flat-heeled shoes, on her wedding day she must be glorified- and usually she is

This season wedding gowns are as beautiful and as romantic as ever, and maybe a little more so White satin and ancestral lace remain the favorites for formal church weddings, but imported organdie is a close runner-up

The bride may choose between regal and dignified styles with long, tight sleeves and princess lines and the youthful simplicity of a less formal mode, with short sleeves, round neckline less elaboration She may have a floor-length veil of old lace, or she may choose the more modern headdress of tulle and flowers, made by a milliner.

The practical bride may even choose a wedding gown which may double as a dance dress later on. To achieve this double-duty purpose, she usually cuts off the train after the wedding, and may even have the gown dyed a pastel tint.

Fashions in wedding rings run more to diamonds this year, with the narrow diamond hoop in great demand Wide bands, of either yellow gold, platinum or palladium also are being used a great deal, with or without jeweled settings There also is a trend to build up the front of the wedding band for greater display of the small diamonds used.

It's Here! Another Child's Book About a Naughty Kitten

DOG STORIES we have in plenty! Horse stories are common, too. But one animal that doesn't appear often enough in a good book but that people like to read about is a cat. So, when a good story about a kitten appears, everyone is glad. FLUFF AND THE FIREMEN is just that, a good book about a naughty kitten, told by Genevieve Cross. The story begins almost like another story you all know, "You may jump after grasshoppers, you may play with your brothers, but don't climb the elm tree." So, can you guess what Fluff did? Of course, you can, he climbed the big elm tree. Can you guess what happened while he was up in the tree? I don't believe you can so you'd better read the book and find out.

Your country, America, or the United States, is one of the most interesting in the whole world. We know that we are lucky to have been born in the U. S. But do you know what our country really means, how it works, and just why we are lucky to live in it?

U. S. MEANS US, says Mina Turner in one of our nicest new books. In the book she tells you how the president is chosen, who helps him after he gets to be president. She tells how the government, in all its parts, works to help us. Also she tells how each one of us plays a part in the government and how we help to run our own country. The pictures, maps and drawings are helpful and fun.

For many weeks now the children who come to Story Hour on Tuesday afternoons have been enjoying the tale of the QUAINT AND CURIOUS QUEST OF JOHNNY LONGFOOT. The tale was told by Catherine Besterman in lovely language that should be read aloud.

Johnny's father was a shoemaker, not an ordinary shoemaker, but the king of the shoemakers. So, Johnny, of course, was a prince. Johnny was sent to spend his vacation with his rich uncle, Lucas Longfoot. Uncle Lucas was not only rich, he was thrifty, very thrifty, in fact, he was downright stingy.

He cried because Johnny was breathing his air, and when he cried he saved his tears because of the salt in them. Johnny didn't think that would be much of a place for a vacation so he started on a trip. Uncle Lucas' two dogs and bear went with him. They first found Barac, the king of the cats, and he sent Johnny to find a pair of seven-league boots. The boots belonged to a giant, the giant was dead and Barnac wanted the boots found and made over to fit him.

The story of the search for the boots and the treasure that was with them is most wondrously exciting. There are storms at sea, swordfish fighting, and whales having their backs sewn up. There are dancing bears and talking porpoises. In fact, everything you need to make a grand book is in "Johnny Longfoot."

There's a big jump from the fairy-like Johnny Longfoot to the very practical, modern subject of the next book. However, all sorts of people like all sorts of books. Horace Gilmore has long been interested in model planes. A few years ago he wrote a book about model planes, with directions and diagrams.

Now he has made a new book, with new models and new ideas. It is called MODEL PLANES FOR BEGINNERS. Summer is coming soon; you boys will have spare time and making model planes is an interesting, inexpensive hobby.

LOSES 60 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING, THANKS TO RENNEL
New Madison Lady Praises Reducer

"I am very happy to recommend Rennel" writes Mrs. S. Helmuth "When I started taking Rennel I was very over weight and was bothered with that over stuffed feeling. Now that I have lost 60 pounds I feel better in every way. I would have lost weight faster if I had watched my diet but I ate anything I wanted all of the time. That is what I like about Rennel, it isn't necessary to diet as it is with other reducing preparations. I also like the way it took care of that over-stuffed feeling."

Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple, go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle, take just two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel, no starvation diet, no printed diet list to buy, no expensive vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry —Adv.

Rotarians See Movies

Children's Home Heads Show Films

Approximately 120 Rotarians and Rotary-Anns saw movies made at the Crawford county Children's Home at the Rotary club's luncheon meeting yesterday at the Mansfield-Leland hotel

The technicolor pictures were presented by Arthur Manzer, chairman of the Crawford County Welfare Board, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adams. Adams is executive secretary of the board.

The movie, "Tomorrow's Citizens," demonstrated the problems confronting the board and the necessary steps taken to bring about a happy useful life for underprivileged children and their parents Scenes from the children's daily life, their farm chores, schooling, recreation, student council, and annual camping trip were shown The movie also showed the care given the children in shaping their lives toward the community leaders and homemakers of the future.

Seek Mexican Oil

BARTLESVILLE, Okla —Plans for the exploration of more than 1,000,000 acres of oil lands in northeastern Mexico, with subsequent development of any new oil sources discovered, was announced today by Cities Service company which will finance the operation

Exploration and development will be handled by Petroleos Mexicanos, a Mexican oil firm.

Cut Buying, Put Money Away For Future, Banker Advises

CLEVELAND — (U.P.) — Young men today should "not buy anything but should put their money into a savings account," Joseph Rubanow, vice president of Manufacturers Trust of New York, said in an interview Tuesday.

Rubanow, one of the nationally known bankers attending the national Association of Credit Men convention, said "any young fellow who has money today should put it in a savings account. He shouldn't buy anything"

The New York banker advised that this is "no time to buy a house, an automobile, or even a refrigerator or jewelry. This is a good time to keep out of debt Later on there'll be better things at lower prices."

Suppose a young man wants to buy a $10,000 house, he said "Then he should have $10,000 in cash He shouldn't even borrow a dime today.

"But if a man is determined to buy a house, he should have a down payment of 75 per cent of the purchase price

"Without a substantial interest, the property doesn't belong to him and if he loses his job, or there's illness in the family, he loses all his savings. Many boys who made G. I. loans already have lost their money that way"

Dr Carl Smith, the association's education director, said "veterans and other young men must face the fact that they're paying too much for a house today and that when the going gets tough they'll find their investment deflated just about 50 per cent"

It is estimated that about 30 percent of all heat loss from homes in winter is through the windows.

Senior Hi-Y Picks Officers

Two officers of the Senior high School Half Century Hi-Y club were reelected at a meeting Monday night at the YMCA.

Phillip Bolin was reelected president of the club and Rex Strine will again serve as club secretary. Other officers elected were Robert Ward, vice president, and Charles Young, treasurer.

The newly-elected officers will be officially installed at the next meeting, May 24, and will assume their duties at the first meeting of the club in the fall.

Herman D. Bishop, assistant principal at Senior high, will remain as the club's adviser for the coming year.

Shipworkers Will Seek Pay Boost

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America (CIO) will seek a "substantial" pay increase for an estimated 30,000 workers in nine east coast shipyards of the Bethlehem Steel company.

John J. Grogran, vice-president of the union, who revealed the move yesterday, did not specify the amount sought.

"Japanese labor is plentiful In fact, it is one of the few surpluses in Japan today.

"Recovery will take the concentrated effort of the entire Japanese people and help from us to bring a solution."

BAGS 34 FOXES

LEBANON—(AP)—Warren county is boasting a new fox-killing champ in Edward Heston of nearby Harveysburg. Heston has bagged 34 bushy tails since Feb. 9 and has received $2.50 for each of them from Sheriff Gerald W. Couden.

This Funny World . . .

Coal was used in the United States shortly after the Revolutionary war, but it was not marketed widely until development of the railroads about 100 years ago.

Dems Guided By Lausche

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Ex-Gov. Frank J. Lausche has emerged as the dominant figure in Ohio's Democratic party.

The tousel-haired Clevelander, fresh from a convincing rout of Ray T. Miller in a bitter gubernatorial nomination race, handpicked the party's central committee officers Monday.

His bandwagon creaked as Miller supporters jumped aboard.

Lausche's choice for state chairman—Eugene H. Hanhart of Dover—won without opposition. Mrs. Lena Siferd of Lima, one of Miller's most outspoken supporters in the primary, seconded Hanhart's nomination.

John W. Powers of Youngstown was named vice-chairman, Miss Mary Gallagher of Ironton, secretary, and Miss Mary McGowan of Akron, treasurer to complete an entirely new central committee.
